

Required: Millwright technician – Witbank

Area: Witbank

Type of Placement: Permanent position in the Alternative Energy sector

The millwright technician is responsible for industrial gas plant maintenance through fault finding and the repair of gas plant equipment based on knowledge and experience gained in general and specified mechanical engineering and electrical engineering.

Duties include the following, but not limited to:

- Perform maintenance work at different altitudes
- Working knowledge of electrical systems i.e. use of meters and testing devices
- Ensuring cost effective maintenance through proper preventive maintenance programs
- Drive and monitor maintenance and H&S strategy
- Warehouse and storeroom management

Education & Experience:

- Matric Certificate
- Millwright (Proof of qualification)
- Valid, unendorsed drivers licence with own vehicle
- Computer literate – Proficient in MS Office
- Min of 3-5 years hands on experience within a heavy duty engineering plant or related industry
- Own set of tools to be used for maintenance requirements
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Strong technical skills (mechanical, electrical and instrumentation) directed towards fault finding/optimization
- Excellent time management
- Planning skills to improve efficiency
- Must have a passion to continuously improve and succeed
- Knowledge of techniques and tools
- Must be able to work overtime and standby as and when required
- Experience working on large compressors would be advantageous

Competencies:

- Critical thinking and problem solving
- Adaptability
- Able to tolerate stress

Knowledge of:

- Gas piping installations and systems
- Large compressors
- Maintenance requirements and - systems

Salary:

- Market related dependent on experience